PTO-SPONSORED CHANGE WARS!

Congratulations to the class winners of this year's Change Wars:

1st Place: 2nd Grade & 3rd Grade (tie)

2nd Place: High School

3rd Place: 1st Grade

What an amazing total the students brought in: $2,907.80! This year, the proceeds will be directed to the Mexico Gift Bag program run by missionary Jeff Waller. Jeff, a CCA Graduate, is a missionary in San Angelo, TX. Each Christmas, Jeff takes thousands of gift bags and soccer balls over the border to Juarez, Mexico, to give to children, preach the gospel of Christ, and minister to families. The proceeds will be used to buy supplies for the gift bags.

On a personal note, I was in Branson, MO, several years ago and was having lunch at the restaurant at the College of the Ozarks with a family that knew we had been working with this Mexico Christmas Bag program for several years. They introduced me to one of the waiters at the restaurant who was from Juarez. Several years prior, this waiter had received a Christmas bag gift from Jeff Waller. He told me that this was the only gift he received that year and that it was the reason that he and his mom started attending church again and was a definite reason he had a relationship with Christ today. This is a great ministry to the under-privileged children in Mexico and a huge "Thank You" from CCA for all your generous donations this year!

ACSI VISIT

Next Monday-Wednesday, April 21-24, a team from the Association of Christian Schools International will be on campus performing a re-certification visit. CCA has certification through the ACSI and will have similar visits every 5-6 years to renew our accreditation through ACSI. Our staff has invested the past year in a self-study getting ready for the upcoming visit. This self study is vital in pointing out curriculum and procedural areas that may have gaps or overlaps. The self-study has been a great review of all that CCA is and does. Each classroom will have short visits by ACSI team members as they observe CCA in action.

A special thanks to all the high schoolers who spent 8th Hour today helping do some spring cleaning around the building!
